

From: Montegoman6@cs.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 12/7/01 6:53pm
Subject: (no subject)

No monopoly is good for US consumers. Less competition for Microsoft equals less performance at a higher price for consumers.

If the present "big business" tag team of Bush, Cheney, and Ashcroft are able to discretely fulfill their obligations to Bill Gates and his campaign contributions, the beneficial change for consumers and fairness to competing companies will likely be minimal...